

That's why they put buttons on the radio, you think you can invade my listening anytime you want, just leave it alone, and go do something good for radio, for a change, try telling the truth once in a while, and bring back Howard Stern, just stay away from my radio pleasures.